Silver coins and all foreign coins (except gold coins and ancient coins for collections).

Restrictions

Clinical thermometers must be accompanied by an official certificate of inspection.

Stocks, bonds, and coupons, unless addressed to the Central Bank of the Turkish Republic, require the authorization from the Turkish exchange control authorities.

The following may be imported only by the Monopoly Administration:

The permission of the Turkish authorities is required for the importation of pharmaceutical specialties, except small quantities for medical or veterinary use or samples by physicians.

The value of gift shipments must not exceed 500 DM.

Tobacco and its products; cigarette paper and apparatus for making cigarettes; tobacco seed; tea; and playing cards other than children's games.

Turkish money, as well as checks and drafts expressed in Turkish money, require authorization from the ministry of Finance. If imported without advance permission, such remittances are liable to confiscation.

Used bedding, linens, clothing, carpets, empty sacks, etc., must be accompanied by a certificate of disinfection.

Observations

1. The value and net weight of each kind of article or goods must be shown on the customs declarations, also the country of origin of the merchandise.
2. Each commercial shipment for Turkey must have enclosed a combined certificate of origin and consular invoice, which must be certified by a chamber of commerce or other trade organization or by a notary public, and be legalized by a Turkish consul.
3. Each commercial shipment of printed matter, such as books, newspapers, or magazines, must likewise be accompanied by an invoice and, except in the case of daily newspapers, by a certificate of origin also.
4. Import license must be obtained for many types of merchandise, and others are subject to import quotas.

Observations

- Letter-post items (ordinary or registered) must not contain any articles other than written personal messages, documents, receipts, invoices, statements, and personal photographs.
- Postal items containing admitted articles in the quantities specified are delivered to the addressee upon payment of customs duty. No duty is collected when the aggregate value of the contents does not exceed the equivalent of a retail price of 30 Russian roubles (approximately $18US).
- If prohibited articles are sent in postal items, one of the following three procedures is followed:
  - confiscation of the entire item;
  - confiscation of the prohibited articles, the rest of the contents delivered to the addressee;
  - return of the item to the country of origin.
- Return Receipts (Advice of Delivery) are initialed or signed by a postal official to indicate delivery. The addressee will not sign the receipt.
- All customs declaration forms must list the contents in English and include an interline translation in French, Russian, or a language used in the country. If additional space is necessary to list the contents, a second customs form should be used and the original form annotated to that effect.
- Books, newspapers, magazines, and other printed materials are admitted without restriction with the exception of printed materials that are referred to above under Prohibitions.
